

Behaviour Management

School-based training for Secondary School Teaching Assistants

THE TRAINING

Support staff play a crucial role in managing children's /young people's behaviour. This course is designed to help participants to develop confidence, and greater expertise in this important area of their work. I aim to make the session relaxed and non-threatening. Training methods will be flexible and include large and small group discussion, exercises and formal teaching. All participants will receive handouts and a certificate.

Aims of the training are to offer participants skills and strategies to:

- ❖ Understand why children/young people misbehave
- ❖ Manage behaviour

Cost is £275.00 for half day workshop.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

By the end of the training, participants will have started to attain:

- ❖ External and internal factors which affect children's /young people's behaviour
- ❖ Ways to encourage acceptable behaviour, which include building relationships, praise and reward., the language of choice, and using humour.
- ❖ A range of strategies to manage unacceptable behaviour which include methods of challenging, assertion skills, conflict resolution, and the use of sanctions
